GRAND KNIGHT'S CORNER

Greetings Brother Knights,

We are heading into the warmer months. Most of our activities are planned for these months. On March 16th we have the St. Patrick's Day Parade. The past few years the Knights have been seen and have won awards in the parade. The Knights have made a good showing to the public. We need to continue to be very visible, and to be proud to be seen by the public. This gives us a chance to promote interest in the Knights and an opportunity to explain our purpose. The parade usually brings inquiries about the Knights and we should be able to recruit some new members. At present we need 3 new members and 1 new insurance member to attain the Star Council Award and the Columbian Award. These awards bring honors from the Supreme Knights and the State Knights to St. Joseph's Council 6353 in York PA.

The council is advancing 5 Knights to the Third Degree on February 17th. The Fourth Degree Exemplification will be April 14th at the Grantville Holiday Inn. The following Knights: Charles Brothman, George Burke, Charles Holdorf, and William Schreiber, will receive their Fourth Degree. Our council is continuing to grow in new members and in Knights advancing in the Degrees.

Our annual council dinner meeting will be held April 16th in the meeting rooms of the church. The menu and price will be available at the March general meeting. Please see Wayne Kurek for reservations.

Please continue to attend the council meetings and continue to pray daily, including the rosary. Continue your good works and thank you for being a Knight.

Paul Shellenberger,
Grand Knight
